

Organizational Chart:

The FOL Board is elected by the membership and reports back to the membership

FOL Committees report to the FOL Board via the Committee Chair.

Volunteers report to the chair of the committee that they work with or to the director of the library, depending on assignment.

The FOL is a separate organization from the library and works with the BARLD Board and the Library director and staff. FOL has no administrative authority over the library staff. Neither does the library staff nor the BARLD Board have administrative authority over the FOL.
